Re: Landsdowne Investments Inc. v. Arnhold and S. Bleichroeder Holdings, Inc.
Case No. 07 Civ. 7421 (RJS)

Dear Judge Sullivan:

We represent the plaintiff in the referenced action. I am sending this letter via fax pursuant to my telephone conversation this afternoon with Eileen Levine of your chambers.

By order dated December 4, 2007, the Court directed the parties to appear for a status conference tomorrow, January 3rd, at 2:30 p.m.

Plaintiff has not yet served the summons and complaint on defendant. The 120-day period in which to do so expired on December 19, 2007. We did not effect service because our client has been attempting to resolve the dispute directly with defendant (through defendant's affiliate) and instructed us to minimize litigation steps as much as possible pending such efforts. There was also office error on our part in calendaring the 120-period. In addition, given that defendant has not yet been served (or, therefore, appeared), we did not file a parties' joint letter or a proposed case management plan in advance of tomorrow's conference.

Hon. Richard A. Sullivan

Based on the foregoing, we will ask the Court, at tomorrow's status conference, (a) to extend the time within which we may effect service on defendant, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m), until January 31, 2008, and (b) to adjourn the status conference until February 29, 2008.

Respectfully submitted,

Martin Domb
